SITUATION/LOCATION

North Road Trade Park is a prominent and well-established trade park situated approximately 1 mile north of Darlington town centre. Occupiers on the parade include Electric Centre, Wolessley, Eurocell, Brewers and Crossling among other trade related businesses. Wider occupiers in the vicinity include Morrisons Food and Fuel Store, B&M, McDonalds, Topps Tiles, Howdens and City Electrical Factors amongst a diverse variety of other businesses including Hopetown Railway Museum and visitor attraction. North Road Trade Park is accessed via Meynell Road which lies adjacent to North Road (A167) providing an arterial route to Darlington town centre from the A1(M). Access to the A66 is available within a short driving distance via Haughton Road (B6279) providing links east/ west. Darlington is a popular market town situated approximately 14 miles west of Middlesbrough and 20 miles south of Durham.

DESCRIPTION

North Road Trade Park comprises 12 units of a similar specification constructed 1990 (approx.).

The units are of steel portal frame construction with profile sheet cladding to elevations held under dual pitched roofs incorporating translucent roof lights.

Each unit is served with an electrically operated up and over door, three phase power supply and wcs.

Externally there is parking provided directly in front of the unit and the tenant will be granted a right to park 3 vehicles in the communal car park at the entrance to the estate.

Unit A6 is presently fitted out to include a ground floor trade counter and offices with a mezzanine storage level. The unit can be returned to shell if preferred by the incoming tenant.
